Project Description

The Project would include the extension of Dublin Boulevard approximately 1.5 miles eastward through eastern Dublin and an unincorporated portion of the Alameda County to the western boundary of Livermore (Project).

The roadway extension would start from the current terminus of Dublin Boulevard at the Dublin Boulevard/Fallon Road intersection in Dublin and would end at the Doolan Road/North Canyons Parkway intersection along the boundary of the County and Livermore. This roadway extension would provide four to six travel lanes and bicycle and pedestrian facilities (i.e., pathways, sidewalks and bike lanes). Beginning at Fallon Road, the roadway extension would have six travel lanes (three in each direction). Continuing eastward, the roadway extension would transition to four travel lanes (two in each direction) before or at the intersection with Croak Road. From Croak road to Doolan Road, the roadway extension would remain in the four lane configuration. The permanent area required for the Project, including the roadway, sidewalks, intersections, and land acquired for right-of-way is estimated at 29 acres. Future average daily traffic (ADT) along the roadway extension is projected to be 17,000 to 19,000 vehicles per day.

California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) and National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA)

While this Project is subject to the requirements of both the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) and the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), separate environmental documents have been prepared, one that complies with NEPA and another that complies with CEQA. The Draft Environmental Assessment (EA) referred to in this notice complies with the requirements of NEPA and other federal environmental laws. Compliance with CEQA and state environmental laws is provided in the Dublin Boulevard – North Canyons Parkway Extension Project Final Environmental Impact Report which was certified by the City of Dublin on August 20, 2019.
